The Diocese of West Virginia is devoted to sharing the experience of Peterkin.

To that end, the Diocese can provide a scholarship, upon receipt of completed camper registration form and scholarship request, to cover up to one-third of the registration cost of camp. All requests for diocesan scholarships must include the signature of your rector or priest-in-charge. The Diocese asks the camper's home congregation to provide a scholarship to cover one-third of the registration cost. The camper is asked to provide the final one-third. If this scholarship model does not fit your financial situation, please contact the diocesan office to discuss other options. Please also keep in mind that the diocese does subsidize all Peterkin campers by providing significant direct support to Peterkin's operating budget. All scholarship requests and financial issues will be handled with utmost discretion by the Diocesan Office. All inquiries should be directed to Mr. David Ramkey, Diocesan CFO at dramkey@wvdiocese.org or 304-344-3597. All requests for scholarships MUST be made prior to arriving at camp.

If requesting a diocesan scholarship, please state why here and the specific amount requested: _____

All campers receiving scholarships must have their application signed by their priest. Due to limited funds, we ask clergy to consider the need and merit before signing this request.
